SUBJECT : Victim and Witness Assistance Procedures

References: (a) DoD Directive 1030.1, "Victim and Witness Assistance, " November 23, 1994
(b) Chapter 47 of title 10, United States Code, "Uniform Code of Military Justice"
(c) Section 10606 et seq. of title 42, United States Code
(d) Section 10681 of title 42, United States Code
(e) through (i) , see enclosure 1

A. PURPOSE

This Instruction:

1. Implements policy, assigns responsibilities, and pre-scribes procedures under reference (a) to provide assistance to victims and witnesses of crimes committed in violation of reference (b) .

2. Implements references (c) through (i) by providing guidance for assisting victims and witnesses of crime from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, and confinement.

3. Establishes the "Victim and Witness Assistance Council. "

B. APPLICABILITY

This Instruction applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense, the Military Departments (including the Coast Guard, when it is operating as a Service in the Navy) , the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, the Unified Combatant Commands, the Inspector General of the Department of Defense, the Defense Agencies, and the DoD Field Activities (hereafter referred to collectively as " the DoD Components") . The term "Military Services, " as used herein, refers to the Army, the Navy, the Air Force, and the Marine Corps.

C. DEFINITIONS

Terms used in this Instruction are defined in enclosure 2.

D. POLICY

It is DoD policy that:

E. RESPONSIBILITIES

1. The Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness shall:

a. Develop overall policy for victim and witness assistance and monitor compliance with this Instruction.

b. Approve procedures developed by the Secretaries of the Military Departments that implement this Instruction and are consistent with section F., below.

c. Change, reissue, or amend this Instruction as required.

d. Ensure the 'Office of Civilian Health and Medical Program of the Uniformed Services (CHAMPUS) includes in its publications for CHAMPUS-eligible members information about victims' entitlements to apply for compensation from State crime victims funds.

e. Ensure the Defense Manpower Data Center assists in formulating a data collection mechanism to track and report victim notifications from initial contact through investigation, prosecution, confinement, and release.

f. Establish an interdisciplinary Victim and Witness Assistance Council to provide a forum for the exchange of information and the consideration of victim and witness policies, to provide a liaison with the Department of Justice Office for Victims of Crime, and to coordinate the victims' advocates programs under 10 U.S.C. 113 note (reference (f)). The membership of the Council shall be selected from members of the Armed Forces and officers and employees of the Department of Defense having expertise in the disciplines and professions addressed in paragraph E.2.f., below. The Council will meet quarterly or at the call of the chair.

2. The Secretaries of the Military Departments and the Heads of the Other DoD Components shall:

a. Ensure compliance with this Instruction and establish policies and procedures to implement the victim and witness assistance program within their Component.

b. Designate the Component responsible official, as defined in item 2. of enclosure 2, for the victim and witness assistance program, who will report annually to the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness using DD Form 2706, "Victim and Witness Assistance Annual Report" (enclosure 8).

3. The Inspector General of the Department of Defense shall develop investigative policy and perform appropriate oversight reviews of the management of the victim and witness assistance program by the DoD criminal investigative organizations. This is not intended to substitute for the routine managerial oversight of the program provided by the DoD criminal investigative organizations, the Office of the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness (OUSDP&R), the Heads of DoD Components, the Component responsible officials, or the local responsible officials.

F. PROCEDURES

1. Initial Information and Services to be Provided to Victims and Witnesses. At the earliest opportunity after identification of a crime victim or witness, the local responsible official, law enforcement officer, or criminal investigation officer shall provide the following services to each victim and witness, as appropriate: The DD Form 2701, "Initial Information for Victims and Witnesses of Crime," (enclosure 3) shall be used as a handout to convey basic information and points of contact. The date it is given to the victim or witness is reportable beginning July 1, 1995, and shall be annotated on the DD Form 1569, "Incident Complaint Report," or computer-generated equivalent. Until the DD Form 1569 is available in forms distribution channels, existing Service incident report forms may be used to annotate the date the DD Form 2701 is given. This annotation serves as evidence that the officer notified the victim or witness of statutory rights. The following services shall also be provided by the local responsible official or designee:

a. Information about available military and civilian emergency medical and social services and, when necessary, assistance in securing such services.

b. Information about restitution or other relief a victim may be entitled to under 42 U.S.C. 10601 et seq. (reference (c)), 42 U.S.C. 10681 (reference (d)), 18 U.S.C. 1512-1514 (reference (e)), or other applicable laws, and the manner in which such relief may be obtained.

c. Information to victims of intra-familial abuse offenses on the availability of limited transitional compensation benefits and possible entitlement to some of the active duty member's retirement benefits under 10 U.S.C. 1058, 1059, and 1408 (reference (i)).

d. Information about public and private programs that are available to provide counseling, treatment, and other support, including available compensation through Federal, State, and local agencies, using the DoJ Federal Resource Guide to Victim and Witness Assistance from the Office for Victims of Crime.

a. Notification of the initial appearance of the suspected offender before a judicial officer at a pretrial confinement hearing or at an Article 32, UCMJ, investigation (10 U.S.C. 832, reference (b)).

b. Notification of and consultation concerning the release of the suspected offender from pre-trial confinement.

c. Consultation concerning the decision not to prefer charges against the suspected offender.

(This consultation and those listed in paragraphs F.3.d.-g., below, may be limited to avoid endangering the safety of a victim or witness, jeopardizing an ongoing investigation, disclosing classified or privileged information, or unduly delaying the disposition of an offense. Although the victim's views should be considered, this Instruction is not intended to limit the responsibility or authority of the Military Semite or Defense Agency officials to act in the interest of good order and discipline.)

d. Explanation of the court-martial process upon referral to trial.

e. Notification of the scheduling, including changes and delays, of each court proceeding the victim is entitled to or required to attend.

f. Consultation concerning a decision to dismiss the charges, or to enter into a pretrial agreement.

g. Notification of the disposition of the case, to include the acceptance of a plea of "guilty, " the rendering of a verdict, or the withdrawal or dismissal of charges.

h. Prior to the actual court-martial, provide assistance in obtaining available services such as transportation, parking, child care, lodging, and courtroom translators or interpreters that may be necessary to allow the victim or witness to participate in court proceedings.

i. During the court proceedings, convening authorities should provide a private waiting area out of the sight and hearing of the accused and defense witnesses. In the case of proceedings conducted aboard ship or in a deployed environment, provide the private waiting area to the greatest extent practicable.

j. After court proceedings, take appropriate action to ensure that property of a victim or witness held as evidence is safeguarded and returned as expeditiously as possible.

k. Notification to victims of the opportunity to present to the court at sentencing, in compliance with applicable law and given to the victim or witness is reportable beginning July 1, 1995, and shall be annotated on the DD Form 1569-3, or computer-generated equivalent as specified in subsection F.I., above. Until the DD Form 1569-3 is available, the date the victim or witness elects to be notified may be annotated on existing Service result of trial forms. (Do not allow the confinee access to DD Forms 2704 or 2705 or attach a copy of the forms to any record to which the confinee has access. Doing so could endanger the victim or witness. The DD Forms 2704 and 2705 are exempt from release under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).)

5. Information and services to be Provided Upon Entry into confinement Facilities. The victim and witness assistance coordinator at the military confinement facility shall:

a. On entry of an offender into post-trial confinement, obtain the DD Form 2704 to determine victim or witness notification requirements. If the form is unavailable, inquire of the Service central repository whether any victim or witness has requested notification of changes in inmate status in the case.

b. When a victim or witness has requested notification of changes in inmate status on the DD Form 2704, and that status changes as listed in subparagraphs F.5.b. (1)-(5), below, use the DD Form 2705, "Victim and Witness Notification of Changes in Inmate Status," (enclosure 7) to notify the victim or witness. The date of such notifications is reportable beginning July 1, 1995 and shall be annotated on appropriate Service forms to comply with the reporting requirement in subparagraph F.6.a. (5). Provide the earliest possible notice of:

(1) The scheduling of a clemency or parole hearing for the inmate.

(2) The transfer of the inmate from one facility to another.

(3) The escape (and subsequent return to custody), work release, furlough, or any other form of release from custody of the inmate.

(4) The release of the inmate to parole supervision.

(5) The death of the inmate, if the inmate dies while in custody.

c. Make reasonable efforts to notify all victims and witnesses who have requested notification of changes in inmate status of any emergency or special temporary home release granted a inmate.

d. On transfer of a inmate to another military confinement facility, forward the DD Form 2704 to the gaining facility, with an information copy to the central repository.

e. Annually report the status of victim and witness notification requests to the Service central repository as required by section G., below.

6. Reporting Procedures

a. To comply with the requirements of references (c) through (h), the Component responsible official shall submit an annual report using the DD Form 2706 to the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness, Attention: Legal Policy Office, 4000 Defense Pentagon, Washington, DC 20301-4000. The report shall be submitted by March 15 for the preceding calendar year and shall address the assistance provided victims and witnesses of crime. It will be derived from data collected using DD Forms 1569 and 1569-3, computer-generated equivalents, or appropriate Service forms (until the DD Forms 1569 and 1569-3 are available). All Components must use these forms or the computer-generated equivalent for incident reporting as soon as they are available in forms distribution channels. Tracking the services provided to victims and witnesses will begin effective July 1, 1995. The report is due annually beginning March 15, 1996 for the preceding calendar year. The report due on March 15, 1996 will cover the period from July 1, 1995 to December 31, 1995. The report shall include the following:

(1) The number of victims and witnesses who received a DD Form 2701 from law enforcement or criminal investigations personnel. This number is derived from the DD Form 1569 or existing Service incident report forms.

(2) The number of victims who received a DD Form 2702 from government trial counsel or designee. This number is derived from the DD Form 1569-3 or appropriate Service forms.

(3) The number of victims and witnesses who received a DD Form 2703 from government trial counsel or designee. This is derived from the DD Form 1569-3 or appropriate Service forms.

(4) The number of victims and witnesses who elected via the DD Form 2704 to be notified of changes in inmate status. This number is derived from the DD Form 1569-3 or appropriate Service forms.

(5) The number of victims and witnesses who were notified by confinement Victim Witness Assistance Coordinators via the DD Form 2705 of changes in inmate status. This number is derived from appropriate Service forms.

(6) The cumulative number of inmates in each Service for whom victim witness notifications must be made by each Service's confinement facilities. These numbers are derived by totaling the number of inmates with victim or witness notification requirements as of July 1, 1995, adding new inmates with the the requirement, and then subtracting those confinees who were released, deceased, or transferred to another facility (Federal, State, or sister Service) during the year.

b. OUSD(P&R) shall consolidate all reports submitted as prescribed in subsection F.6., above, and submit an annual report to the Office for Victims of Crime, Department of Justice.

G. INFORMATION REQUIREMENTS

The annual reporting requirement in paragraph F.6.a., above, has been assigned Report Control Symbol DD-P&R(A)1952.

H. EFFECTIVE DATE AND IMPLEMENTATION

The annual reporting requirement in paragraph F.6.a., above is effective July 1, 1995 with the first report due March 15, 1996. The remaining provisions of this Instruction are effective immediately. The Military Departments shall forward two copies of implementing documents to the Under Secretary of Defense for Personnel and Readiness within 120 days.

DEFINITIONS

1. Central Repository. A headquarters office, designated by the Secretary for each Military Department to serve as a clearing-house of information on inmate status and to collect and report data on the delivery of victim and witness assistance including notification of inmate status-changes.

2. Component Responsible Official. Person designated by the Head of each DoD Component primarily responsible in the Component for coordinating, implementing, and managing the Victim and Witness Assistance Program established by this Instruction.

3. Confinement Facility Victim and Witness Assistance Coordinator. A staff member at a military confinement facility who is-responsible for notifying victims and witnesses of changes in inmate status and reporting annually the number of those notifications to the Service central repository.

4. Local Responsible official. Person designated by the Component responsible official who has primary responsibility for identifying victims and witnesses of crime and for coordinating the delivery of services described in this Instruction through an interdisciplinary approach. The position or billet of the local responsible official will be designated in writing by Service regulation. The local responsible official may delegate responsibilities under this Instruction as provided in paragraph E.2.i., above.

5. Victim. A person who has suffered direct physical, emotional, or pecuniary harm as a result of the commission of a crime committed in violation of the UCMJ (reference (b)), (or in violation of the law of another jurisdiction if any portion of the investigation is conducted primarily by the DoD Components) . Such individuals shall include, but are not limited to, the following:

- a. Military members and their family members.
- b. When stationed outside the continental United States, DoD civilian employees and contractors, and their family members. This applies to services not available to DoD civilian employees and contractors, and their family members, in stateside locations, such as medical care in military medical facilities.
- c. When a victim is under 18 years of age, incompetent, incapacitated, or deceased, the term includes one of the following (in order of precedence): a spouse, legal guardian, parent, child, sibling, another family member, or another person designated by the court or the Component responsible official, or designee.

d. For a victim that is an institutional entity, an authorized representative of the entity. Federal Departments and State and local agencies, as entities, are not eligible for services available to individual victims.

6. Witness. A person who has information or evidence about a crime, and provides that knowledge to a DoD Component about an offense in the investigative jurisdiction of a DoD Component. When the witness is a minor, that term includes a family member or legal guardian. The term witness does not include a defense witness or an individual involved in the crime as a perpetrator or accomplice.

increased concern for their personal safety and that of their family, trouble concentrating on the job, difficulty handling everyday problems, feeling overwhelmed, and thinking of the crime repeatedly.

Some or all of these behaviors may occur and will ease with time. They are normal reactions but you may wish to see a counselor. State compensation funds may be available to reimburse you for such counseling. The Victim/Witness Assistance Responsible Official will have further information.

Your Rights As A Victim

As a Federal crime victim, you have the following rights:

- The right to be treated with fairness and with respect for your dignity and privacy;
- The right to be reasonably protected from the accused offender;
- The right to be notified of court proceedings;
- The right to be present at all public court proceedings related to the offense, unless the court determines that your testimony would be materially affected if you as the victim heard other testimony at trial;
- The right to confer with the attorney for the government in the case;
- The right to available restitution;
- The right to information about the conviction, sentencing, imprisonment, and release of the offender.

INITIAL INFORMATION FOR "
VICTIMS AND WITNESSES
OF CRIME

Initial Information
For Victims and Witnesses of Crime

Introduction. We are concerned about the problems often experienced by victims and witnesses of crime. We know that as a victim or witness, you may experience anger, frustration, or fear as a result of your experience. The officer responsible for Victim/Witness Assistance (Victim/Witness Liaison or Advocate) at your installation can help.

We have prepared this brochure to help you deal with the problems and questions which often surface during an investigation and to provide you with a better understanding of how the military criminal justice system works. Your continued assistance is greatly needed and appreciated.

A criminal investigation can be both complex and lengthy and may involve several agencies, some Federal and some local. If you request, you will be kept informed of the status of your case by the investigator handling your case. His or her name is on the back of this brochure.

If You Are Threatened Or Harassed. If anyone threatens you or you feel that you are being harassed because of your cooperation with this investigation, contact the investigator or the Victim/Witness Responsible Official right away. It is a crime to threaten or harass a victim or witness.

If You Were Injured. If you do not have insurance to pay the cost of your medical or counseling bills, or related expenses, the state Crime Victim Compensation office may be able to assist. The telephone number for this office is on the back of this brochure.

If You Were a Victim of Spouse or Child Abuse. For your safety, you may want a restraining order, or temporary shelter. For information about these steps or about counseling services, call the Victim/Witness Responsible Official. If the offender is convicted or discharged for abusing you or your children, you may be eligible for "transitional compensation" benefits. Contact the prosecutor identified on the back of this brochure for further information.

Restitution. If an individual is arrested and prosecuted in federal court, you may be eligible for restitution. Restitution is court-ordered payment to you as a victim of crime. It is made by the offender for any out of pocket expenses caused by the crime. Restitution cannot be ordered as a sentence in a military court-martial, but it can be used as a condition of a pre-trial agreement to plead guilty to an offense, or as a condition of clemency or parole.

If Property Was Stolen. If your property was stolen, we hope to recover it as part of our investigation. If we do, we will notify you and return it to you as quickly as possible. Sometimes property needs to be held as evidence for trial. We will return your property once it is no longer needed as evidence.

If You Need Assistance With Your Employer or Command. If you have problems at work because of the crime or the investigation, we can contact your employer or Commanding Officer to discuss the importance of your role in the case.

If An Arrest Is Made. If you ask, you will be notified if a suspect is arrested. Since criminal defendants may be released before trial, you can ask for a restraining order to help protect you from the suspect.

Trial. Once an offense has been referred to trial, you will be contacted by the military trial counsel (prosecutor) or the Assistant U.S. Attorney assigned to handle your case, as appropriate. Each command and U.S. Attorney has a Victim/Witness Responsible Official to help answer your questions and deal with your concerns during the prosecution. You have the right to be consulted at key stages in the trial and will be informed of these rights by trial counsel.

Confinement. If the accused is sentenced to confinement (prison), you have a right to notification of changes in the confined's status. Use a DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Inmate Status", to request that the confinement facility notify you of parole hearings, escape, release, or death of the confined.

The Emotional Impact of Crime. Many victims and witnesses are emotionally affected by the crime. Although everyone reacts differently, victims and witnesses report some common behaviors, such as .

Sentencing.

In this phase, the judge or members (jury) decide the appropriate types and amount of punishment. The Trial Counsel may call witnesses to show aggravating factors concerning the offenses. The defense may call witnesses to show the offense may be less serious than otherwise indicated. You may be asked to return to the witness stand and testify as to how the crime has affected you. This may include the emotional, physical and financial suffering you experienced.

Punishment.

The court-martial ends when the judge reads the sentence to the accused. Normally, any confinement ordered begins at the time the sentence is announced. Other parts of the sentence, such as forfeitures of pay and reduction in rank, take effect after the "convening authority", usually a senior officer, takes "action" on the case. This generally occurs within two to three months, but can take longer in more complex cases.

If the accused is sentenced to prison, you have additional rights to notification of any changes in the inmate's status. These will be explained to you by the Trial Counsel or a designated representative.

If the offender is convicted or discharged for abusing you or your children, you may be eligible for "transitional compensation" benefits. Contact the Trial Counsel for an application (DD Form 2707) and for further information.

Your Participation.

You may choose to participate in the trial at several stages. You may ask to be:

- Notified of and be present at all public court proceedings;
- Consulted on pre-trial confinement of accused and release of accused from pre-trial confinement;
- Contacted about the proposed dismissal of any and all charges;
- Consulted on decision not to prosecute;
- Contacted regarding the proposed terms of any negotiated plea;
- Consulted on proposed terms of any pre-trial agreement;
- Notified of the acceptance of a guilty plea; to present to the court evidence on sentencing;
- Informed about the conviction, sentencing, and imprisonment of the accused.

COURT-MARTIAL INFORMATION FOR VICTIMS AND WITNESSES OF CRIME

Court-Martial Information For Victims and Witnesses of Crime

Introduction.

The Department of Defense is concerned about the problems often experienced by victims and witnesses of crime. We know that as a victim or witness, you may feel anger, confusion, frustration, or fear as a result of your experience and then feel added frustration in the course of the trial. The information in this brochure will explain the criminal justice procedures, and your role as a witness.

In the military, a prosecutor is called the Trial Counsel. The Trial Counsel's office will make every effort to keep you informed of the times and places you may be needed. However, it is not unusual for court dates to change several times before the trial. It is very important to keep the Trial Counsel informed of your current address and telephone number.

Preferral of Charges.

Like a civilian criminal "complaint," the preferral of charges begins the criminal trial process. Upon preferral, you may participate in the case at several points as outlined below.

Pretrial Conference.

You will be asked to speak with the Trial Counsel handling the case at least once before you testify. The Trial Counsel will answer any questions you may have at this time, and will tell you what will be expected of you as a witness.

Article 32 Hearing.

Serious crimes are dealt with in a "General" court-martial which includes an "Article 32" hearing. Similar to a grand jury hearing, an Article 32 hearing is the preliminary investigation into the charges to determine if reasonable grounds exist to believe the accused committed the crimes charged. In the Article 32 hearing, testimony is given to an Investigating Officer (10), rather than a judge or jury. You may have to appear at the hearing and testify under oath regarding what you know about the charges. After the Article 32 hearing, the 10 recommends whether to "refer" (send) the case to trial. In less serious cases, the preliminary hearing is not required and cases are referred to a Special Court-Martial.

Court-Martial.

This is the trial of the accused. It generally has two parts: findings (guilty or not guilty) and sentencing (punishment). In the findings phase the accused has the right to choose whether a Military Judge sitting alone or a panel of "members" (jury) will decide whether the accused is guilty of any offenses.

Testimony.

If you testify, you will be placed under oath and asked questions by the Trial Counsel, and, in most cases, cross-examined by the Defense Counsel. Usually, counsel for both sides will have spoken to you prior to testifying so there will be very few surprises. If you have concerns about embarrassing questions that could be asked, tell the Trial Counsel before trial.

Pointers When Testifying.

- Dress Appropriately: Be neat. Dress "conservatively.
- Tell the Truth: Honesty is the best policy.
- Speak Clearly and Loudly: Everyone in the courtroom must be able to hear what you have to say. No gum chewing. "
- Don't Guess or Speculate: If you don't know, say you don't know. Give positive, definite answers when you remember positively.
- Be Courteous: Answer politely and address the judge as "Your honor."
- Don't Lose Your Temper: Stay calm.

Closing Argument.

After all evidence is received by the court, each side makes a closing argument. After argument, the judge or members will adjourn to deliberate on the issue of guilt or innocence. If there is a finding of "not guilty," the accused is released and the court-martial process ends. If there is a finding of "guilty," the trial immediately goes to the sentencing phase..

Your Rights As A Victim.

As a victim of a crime, you have the following rights under the Victim's Rights and Restitution Act of 1990 (Public Law No. 101-647):

- To be treated with fairness and with respect for your dignity and privacy;
- To be reasonably protected from the accused;
- To be notified of court proceedings;
- To be present at all public court proceedings related to the offenses, unless the court determines that your testimony would be materially affected if you heard other testimony at trial;
- To confer with the attorney for the Government (Trial Counsel) in the case;
- To receive available restitution;
- To receive information about the conviction, sentencing, imprisonment, parole eligibility and release of the accused.

POST-TRIAL
INFORMATION FOR VICTIMS AND WITNESSES
OF CRIME

Post-Trial Information

For Victims and Witnesses of Crime

Introduction.

This brochure details the post-trial process and your rights in that process. Most important is your right to be notified of changes in the confinement status of the offender in your case.

Location of Confinement Facility.

The Victim and Witness Assistance Program does not end with the completion of the court-martial. If the accused is convicted of any offense, the court-martial will sentence the accused. If the sentence includes confinement, the accused, now called "inmate", is usually taken immediately to jail. If there is a confinement facility at the installation where the trial was held, the inmate will be held there temporarily.

Depending on the security level of the inmate, he/she may be assigned to various work details around the installation. If the inmate's period of confinement is 3 months or less, and there are adequate facilities on the installation, the inmate may serve the entire sentence at the installation.

If there is no confinement facility at the installation, the facility is not adequate to house the inmate, or the sentence is in excess of 3 months, he/she will be taken to a regional confinement facility. The inmate may later be transferred to other facilities available, based on length of sentence, programs and security levels. You will be notified of these changes if you fill out a form called DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Inmate Status."

Convening Authority Action.

The other parts of the sentence (e.g., forfeitures of pay, reduction in rank) will not be effective until the "convening authority", usually a senior officer, takes "action" on it, generally within 6 to 9 months. The convening authority may disapprove the findings, disapprove or reduce any part of the sentence, or approve everything except a punitive discharge. The convening authority cannot increase any part of the sentence. You have the right to submit a statement to the convening authority on how you feel about the inmate receiving clemency. You can ask the Trial Counsel about this right.

Clemency and Parole Consideration.

Military inmates are eligible for parole consideration when they have completed 1/3 of their confinement, and every year thereafter. You may make a statement to the Clemency and Parole Board on how the crime affected you. The statement may be on audio or video tape or in writing and may be sent to the Service Clemency and Parole Board at the address on the back of this page. A personal appearance before the Board may also be permitted.

Notification Rights.

You have the right to be notified in writing of the following changes in the inmate's status: transfer to another facility, parole, escape, release from confinement, or death while in confinement. If the inmate is released on temporary home leave (for example, to visit a dying parent), the confinement facility will make every effort to notify you in advance. It is very important that you keep the confinement facility informed of your current address and telephone number.

How To Exercise Your Rights.

If you want to exercise these rights, and be notified of the dates of any clemency and parole hearings, and changes in the inmate's status, you must fill out DD Form 2704, "Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Inmate Status." You MUST notify the Service Central Repository of all address and telephone number changes if you want to receive notices. This information will be kept confidential.

Points of Contact.

From now on, your point of contact will be the confinement facility or the Service Central Repository listed on the back of this page. Please call if you have any questions.
